

Biography – Deborah Merchant, DTM

Debi joined TM in 1999. CEO and President of Attitude, Common Sense, Etc., Inc. - a business promoting the idea that we're at the helm of our ship called life, and how we choose to steer our ship determines the quality of our journey. Educational session speaker at District 14 Spring Conference 2004. Conducts training sessions for the US Government Printing Office to audiences consisting of Federal employees as well as Government vendors. Speaks to high school, as well as college students. Earned DTM June 2005. Hobbies include reading, writing, hiking, music, and working out. Passionate about personal responsibility, utilizing common sense and common courtesy, being good stewards of the tax dollar, and living by a high standard of integrity. Causes: Habitat for Humanity and finding a cure for breast cancer. Married, three grown children, one grandchild.